

May 25, 1939.

Mr. S. H. Posey,
324 - 13th Ave.,
Homestead, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your letters are always a week late reaching me, as you are still addressing them to Montgomery Avenue instead of Montgomery Street. I have told Cum about this at least ten times.

Will send you publicity at once.

In looking over schedule I find we could play an exhibition game at Newark Wednesday June 21st. We should do fine if we keep on winning. I will play you 50 - 50 after expenses. If you want this tell Gottlieb next time you write him, and I will also let him know.

In the schedule we were to stay with the Grays until the 9th. From your letter I see that is changed to the 8th. This is O. K., but I just want to get it straight.

Next game at Yankee Stadium July 2nd.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ